

BEYOND THE MOTHERLAND

Acclaimed Chinese sculptor Cai Zhisong has progressed from nude figures inspired by past dynasties to roses that question our fascination with love and beauty, and floating clouds that paint a more positive view of life. Karen Yan meets him at his studio in Beijing.

Cai Zhisong with his Rose series